Final Office Action

Claims 1-4 are pending. No claim is allowed at this time. Amendments are entered.

Summary of this Office Action dated May 10, 2008

1. 35 USC § 112 --- New Matter Rejection
2. 35 USC § 103(a) Rejection
3. Conclusion
4. Communication

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Following reasons apply:

3. Citation of “at least one of paraformaldehyde and trioxane” in claim 1 is considered new matter. Specification does not disclose the negative limitation of “at least” anywhere in the disclosure. MPEP 2173.05(i) states: “Any negative limitation or exclusionary proviso must have basis in the original disclosure. See In re Johnson, 558 F.2d 1008, 1019, 194 USPQ 187, 196 (CCPA 1977). In In re Johnson, the court noted that any negative limitation or exclusionary proviso must have basis in the original disclosure. Only if alternative elements are positively recited in the specification, they may be explicitly excluded in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 1-4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over VICTOR WEINMAYR (JOC, 28, 492-4, 1963, IDS reference). The reference teaches a process for producing 2,2,3,3-tetrafluorooxethane by reacting fluoro-olefins with formaldehyde in hydrogen fluoride. Trifluoroethylene condenses with formaldehyde in liquid hydrogen fluoride to form 2,2,3,3-pentafluoro-1-propanol and fluoromethyl 1,2,2,3,3,-pentafluoropropyl ether. See the entire document especially abstract, 1-32, and 1st column on page 493.

Presently claimed invention is drawn to a process for producing 2,2,3,3-tetrafluorooxethane, which comprises allowing tetrafluoroethylene to react with a formaldehyde generating compound in anhydrous hydrogen fluoride reaction being carried out in the presence of polyfluoroalkylic acid or polyfluoroalkyl ester thereof, represented by the following general formula: RfCOORf".

Instant claims for process for producing 2,2,3,3-tetrafluorooxethane, has been generically taught by the reference.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention to prepare 2,2,3,3-tetrafluorooxethane, by formaldehyde or its derivative and anhydrous hydrogen fluoride because prior art teaches this method. Instant claims are broader than the reference because reaction with "formaldehyde generator" has been claimed.

The reaction to prepare fluoro derivatives has been taught by the reference.

In the light of the forgoing discussion, the Examiner's ultimate legal conclusion is that the subject matter defined by the instant claims would have been obvious within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Response to Remarks

Rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph is withdrawn because claims are amended.

Obviousness rejection is maintained because arguments are not found persuasive. The amendments are considered "new matter". Applicant is kindly requested to explain the support of the amended claims.

Art Unit: 1612

In order to advance the prosecution Applicant may consider calling the Examiner to discuss the issues surrounding this application.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
